PREFACE.

IN this sale we present for the competition of American collectors the exceedingly choice series of our country's coinage, formed by E. Shorthouse, Esq., of Birmingham, and a member of the Numismatic Society of London.

The collection was made with great care and will be found to contain many rarities and gems, among which the following are worthy of especial notice :

In the Colonial Series—the N. E. shilling, the uncirculated Massachusetts shillings, the Lord Baltimore shilling and sixpence, the Rosa Americana series. Amongst the State coins are two great rarities, in uncirculated condition—the New York cents of 1787, Indian standing, LIBER NATUS LIBERTATEM DEFENDO, R. Eagle on globe, and 1786 Bust of Washington, NON VI VIRTUTE VICI; the New York 1787 “Excelsior;” Bar cents; fine Massachusetts cents, and Kentucky 1796.

The coins of the United States, beginning with a fine Continental currency dollar in tin, include many beautiful dollars, halves and quarters, and a splendid line of cents, amongst which, in extraordinary condition, are the 1793 chain, R. AMERI; the 1794's; the uncirculated 1795 lettered edge and thin planchets; 1796 head with Liberty Cap, 1798, 1807, 1835 bright red, and 1843, 57 proofs; the half-cents contain two extremely fine 1793's, a beautiful uncirculated 94, and proofs in the 40's.

The Libertas Americana medal in silver is worthy of notice for its beauty and rarity.

There are also several rare Canadian coins, including Montreal pennies of 1838 and 1839, and half-pennies of 1839.

A Pitt token, farthing size, in very fine condition is very remarkable.

The exceedingly rare Birmingham token for sixpence is offered for the first time in America.

The foreign silver coins contain a six thaler piece of Brunswick and other desirable specimens.

In several of the lots throughout the catalogue will be found some very rare and desirable coins, which we should have catalogued separately, had not Mr. Shorthouse written that his grouping of the coins were to be kept together and not separated, leaving us no alternative but to do as he wished.

At the request of Mr. Shorthouse the sale is to be held in New York.

We guarantee all the coins and medals to be genuine and original, unless otherwise described.

Priced catalogues will be supplied immediately after sale for 50 cents.

We will faithfully execute bids entrusted to our care, and would request collectors to send them in soon after receiving the catalogue.
